Presents

Let's Talk About Sex: Sex & Sexuality in Children and Adolescents

Presenter: Susan Writer, Ph.D.

Date & Time: May 5, 2015 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Location: Academy for Professional Excellence— Training Room
6505 Alvarado Rd, Suite 205
San Diego, CA 92120

Target Audience: Therapists, counselors, family & youth support partners, case managers, teachers, social workers, probation officers, and other individuals working with children, youth, and families

Course Description: What do you do when children and adolescents ask you about sex and sexuality? How does it make you feel? This training will help you examine and confront your biases to develop trust and rapport with child and adolescent clients. Through interactive activities, role plays, and an examination of research and current legal practices, you will find the language to set appropriate boundaries while discussing this difficult topic with children and adolescents.

Learning Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Identify fears, biases, and experiences that impact our ability to openly discuss sexuality-related topics with minors
- Identify and explore different sexuality-related issues that minors experience
- List tools to use when talking to parents about sexuality-related issues
- Apply a vocabulary and practical skills to use in all phases of treatment with minors when talking about sexuality-related topics

This training is FREE of charge
