

Behavioral Health Education & Training Academy presents

How to Supervise Evidence Based Practices

TRAINER: Laura Beadles, LCSW
Division Director, San Diego Youth Services

DATE AND TIME:

Thursday, May 12, 2016
8:30am - 12:30pm

LOCATION:

Academy for Professional Excellence
6505 Alvarado Road, #205
San Diego, CA 92120

DESCRIPTION:

Throughout the county of San Diego staff make use of many Evidence Based Practices in providing services to program participants. In order to be successful in using these practices it is essential that they are provided consistently and according to the structure of the practice. In this half-day training you will learn supervisory practices that will support staff while ensuring consistent adherence to the fidelity of the various Evidence Based Practices in your programs.

AUDIENCE:

All BHS managers and supervisors, as well as leads or those in supervisory roles.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

Upon completion of this training participants will be able to:

- Explain and create a fidelity monitoring plan for multiple types of Evidence Based Practices
- Describe planned adaptations to Evidence Based Practices
- Identify a sustainability plan
- Demonstrate ways to supervise staff to ensure consistent and proper delivery of Evidence Based Practices
