CQI STATEWIDE CONFERENCE FOR CHILD WELFARE AND PROBATION

REGISTER TODAY FOR THE MARCH 28-29, 2018 STATEWIDE CONFERENCE!

Continuous Quality Improvement (CQI) is quickly gaining the time and attention it has deserved in the field of child welfare and probation. Organizations are finding a strong CQI system can inform program development and improvement, contract deliverables, workforce development, and most importantly guide improved outcomes for children and families.

Hosted by California Department of Social Services, this conference provides a wonderful opportunity to connect with colleagues across the state who are passionate about the development and implementation of CQI systems. Together we will learn from each other’s successes and challenges as we continue to develop CQI strategies and systems that benefit organizations and improve outcomes for children and families.

KEYNOTE PRESENTERS INCLUDE:

- Alison Blake, Former Commissioner, New Jersey Department of Children’s and Families
- Britany Binkowski, Special Assistant to the Commissioner for Child Welfare Reform in Tennessee
- Jennifer Haight, Chapin Hall at the University of Chicago
- Peter Watson, Casey Family Programs

Over 12 Workshops will be offered that support the continuum of developing a strong CQI system with subject matter experts and County partners.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:
Child welfare and Probation leadership, CFSR case reviewers, county managers, supervisors, all those involved with CQI activities
