

RIHS Cultural Competency eLearnings

The following courses contribute towards the San Diego County BHS requirement of 4 hours of Cultural Competency training. To find these trainings, you may search for the course by name or provided course code.

Rev. 2020

Course Name and Code

Anti-Racism in the United States eLearning BHE0129

Body Image Recorded Webinar BHE0063

CCA Dealing with Difficult Situations Recorded Webinar BHE0075

CLAS Standards eLearning BHE0086

Cultural Competence as a Process eLearning BHE0100

Effectively Working with LGBTQ Youth PCWTADL0015

Introduction to African American Populations BHE0065

Introduction to Asian American and Pacific Islander Communities BHE0116

Introduction to Geriatric Mental Health BHE0018

Introduction to Latino Populations BHE0022

Introduction to LGBTQ+ Communities BHE0041

Introduction to Native American Populations BHE0066

Introduction to Trauma Informed Care BHE0036

LGBTQ Young Adults and Fostering Connections After 18/AB12 PCWTADL0031

Male Survivors of Sexual Trauma and Abuse Recorded Webinar BHE0053

Psychopharmacology in Older Adults BHE0024

Recovery Perspective in Behavioral Health Services Recorded Webinar

BHE0040 Senior Veterans BHE0020

Veterans in Our Community BHE0002

Click Here to log into the LMS and Register

Responsive Integrated Health Solutions (RIHS) is a County of San Diego Behavioral Health contracted program of the Academy for Professional Excellence, and a project of San Diego State University School of Social Work.

