

CLAS Standards — eLearning

Course Code: BHE0086

AUDIENCE: Counselors, peer specialist and family support partners, BHS therapists, case managers, administrators and anyone else working within the public behavioral health system of care.

DESCRIPTION:

The National CLAS Standards provide a blueprint for providing Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services. You and your program play an important role in implementing the CLAS Standards to help address disparities and ensure that the services provided through San Diego County Behavioral Health Services are responsive to diverse populations' cultures and languages. This eLearning experience will provide you with an overview of the CLAS Standards, and guidance for how to apply them to your specific program.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

Upon completion of this training participants will be able to:

- Discuss the foundation of the CLAS Standards
- Recognize the components of each of the 15 CLAS Standards
- Discuss strategies and ideas for implementing the CLAS Standards
- Apply the CLAS Standards to your role and your organization
