Intended Audience

This Adult Protective Services Workforce Innovations (APSWI) training was developed for new and experienced APS staff. It fulfills NAPSA Module #18.

Learning Objectives

In this interactive and dynamic introductory training, participants learn how to assess risk across five domains in terms of severity and urgency.

Participants will be able to:

- Define risk assessment and its function
- Assess risk factors in the five domains
 - i. Physical and functional status
 - ii. Mental health status and capacity
 - iii. Living environment
 - iv. Financial
 - v. Social (risk posed by others, including caretakers and family members)
- Assess overall levels of risk in terms of severity, urgency and likelihood of harm occurring
- Describe the benefits and limitations of risk assessment tools
- Develop risk reduction service plans

Presenter

Kevin Bigelow is a retired APS worker and supervisor, having worked for Orange County for 25 years. Since retiring, he works as a trainer and consultant and he is the Coordinator for the NAPSA Certificate Program.
