

APS Leaders Institute

Program Description

The goal of the APS Leaders Institute is to enhance the capacity for APS Program Managers to drive APS program improvements by examining and building upon federal and state APS guidelines, current research, and best practices.

National experts will deliver a series of innovative workshops on a variety of topics pertinent to APS in order to build the collective knowledge of APS leadership to work together in strengthening California's APS system.

Intended Audience

The APS Leaders Institute workshops are intended for APS Program Managers, with selected topics noted for Administrators.

The APS Leaders Institute workshops are designed to be taken in succession and to cumulatively strengthen partnerships and statewide collaboration. For these reasons, participants are highly encouraged to attend all of the workshops in the series.
