

Pathways to Well-Being and Continuum of Care Reform eLearning*

Course Code: PCWTADL0043

Course Description

The Integrated Core Practice Model (ICPM), Pathways to Well-Being, and Continuum of Care Reform outline the shared values, core components, and standards of practice expected from the professionals who serve San Diego County's children, youth and families who have intensive behavioral health needs and are involved with the Child Welfare System. This family-centered approach seeks to improve collaboration and communication among Behavioral Health, Child Welfare, and Juvenile Probation staff, as well as the children, youth and families they serve. Understanding this shared vision will help you to ensure that these comprehensive, strengths-based, culturally relevant, and trauma-informed supports and services are responsive to the strengths and underlying needs of those you serve.

*This eLearning is a required course for all new CYF contractor and county employees

Audience

CYF-BHS therapists, counselors, family and support partners, case managers, and other direct service providers working with children, youth and families.
