

Introduction to Motivational Interviewing

Presented by Rosemarie Campos Sachs, LMFT

Course Code: BH0003

Overview

This course is a two-part series designed for participants interested in learning more about Motivational Interviewing (MI) and enhancing skills in the MI method within substance use disorder programs. This course is designed to provide an overall conceptual understanding of MI, as well as an increased knowledge of the core skills that assist others in making positive changes. The course format is interactive, includes modalities to meet various learning styles, and offers practice opportunities. Participants will gain confidence in applying MI in their work, and ultimately in motivating individuals toward their goals more effectively. Learners will learn techniques to apply MI in various ASAM levels of care, and all case examples will be oriented to substance use. Click here to see the training outline.

Audience

All SUD counselors, case managers, therapists, and other direct service providers working within the behavioral health system of care .
