Have you wanted to support your staff in the effective application of Motivational Interviewing? This coaching opportunity is being made available for supervisors and managers to offer ideas of how they can support all the Motivational Interviewing practitioners within their programs. Participants will receive small group coaching sessions that will involve identifying the challenges that arise and offering discussions and activities that can overcome those challenges in program supervision and coaching. Coaching supports learners to sustain their skill development and support implementation of Motivational Interviewing.

Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this training, participants will be able to:

- Identify at least 2 tools that will focus on the process of coaching and giving feedback of Motivational Interviewing skill development within a supervision context
- List at least 2 tasks of learning Motivational Interviewing that can guide a developmental perspective of supporting MI skill application within a supervision context.
